ALIGNMENT

Xypex Australia's focus is to deliver Ecological Resilience through longer lasting concrete infrastructure which is in strong alignment with the ISC's purpose of ensuring that all infrastructure delivers social, cultural, environmental and economic benefits. The ISC are a significant contributor to coordinating, developing and supporting the implementation of low carbon and resilient solutions and results.

Members learn and gain insights from each other, the wider sustainability community, and drive change within the industry. As members, we collaborate and participate in working groups to transform the latest expertise and thinking into frameworks and tools that help achieve sustainable impact and change for our industry.

There are over 200 ISC member organisations and a wider range of industry partners and stakeholders to engage, share knowledge with, and seek solutions to common sustainability challenges.

Aligning with Sustainable Leaders within our industry, Infrastructure Sustainable Council (ISC) play their part in ensuring all infrastructure delivers cultural, social, economic and environmental benefits.
